TWO PROJECTS ARE ADOPTED BY SPORTSMEN

The Adams County Fish and Game Association, meeting Thursday evening at the Cashtown fire engine house, voted for two projects to aid in better sports facilities for both members and non-members.

Because of the interest of members and others in training dogs, the association decided to try to locate a farm near Gettysburg, to be used as a dog training area throughout the year by permission of the State Game commission.

The group decided to attempt to locate and lease 1,000 acres to be stocked by the association and used as a hunting grounds for association members only. The association pointed out that such a project would also benefit the farmers from whom the ground is rented and would benefit non-member hunters because game would migrate from the grounds.

Purchase of an electric incubator to hatch quail eggs of the association's stock birds was voted. The incubator will also be available for any one raising quail under the game association's program in which the association provides the first pair of birds and then receives one-half of the eggs from the pair.

Seventy-five attended Thursday's meeting. The next session will be held in Fairfield on June 17.

Replied Commissioner Vernon W. Janney:

"Your kind, clever letter created a furor, And I know you'd have made a wonderful juror. But excused you are from jury service; Be sure we don't want to make you nervous."

SAY CHINESE HOLDING REDS

By FRED HAMPSON
Shanghai, May 20 (AP)—Communists rimmed Shanghai seethed with rumors today but what looked like a National withdrawal last night looked less so tonight.

A garrison communique claimed the Nationalists threw back all new Red efforts to close in from the Pootung area across the Whangpoo. Nevertheless four Red shells fell in Shanghai proper—killing half a dozen Chinese along Rue Lafayette in the old French concession. The area is about a mile from the Whangpoo front.

One foreigner who went to the front said he walked three miles beyond Kaohoa and saw no Communists. The Reds are supposed to have attacked that area last night. It is near the Yangtze downstream from Woosung fortress.

Although the famed Bund is closed, the expected evacuation of troops has not developed. The foreigner who visited the front said he saw no large ships loading there.

The Communists have light artillery on the Pootung side. A few minutes before I visited Lungwa airfield at 5 p. m. two Red shells landed in that area. One went into the Whangpoo at the edge of the airstrip and another fell on the far side of the river. There was no damage from either.

COUNTY HEALTH COUNCIL VOTES AWAY ITS FUNDS

The Adams County Advisory Health Council voted itself out of funds Thursday afternoon because the state and local school boards are doing the financial job the committee was originally set up to do.

The council came into existence several years ago when countians donated money to start nursing service for all schools in the county. The money collected for the nursing service was more than the amount needed for the one year demonstration program that was planned and the advisory council was set up to help publicize the nursing program and to use the money left over to aid either the program in general, or individual children.

To Continue Activities

Since the first year's operation of the nursing program, the state has made possible reimbursement to school boards for school nurses and has otherwise embarked on such an extensive program that there is no further need for the advisory council to carry on the financial part of its program. C. P. Keefer, chairman of the council, pointed out at Thursday's session held at the court house.

As a result the council voted to turn over the approximately $225 remaining in its treasury to the nurses' fund of the Adams county school board to be spent as part of the regular funds provided for the nurses.

The advisory group will continue in its function of hearing reports from the school nurses and discussing with the nurses and advising on matters of school health.

At the next meeting in June, the group will reorganize and hear annual reports from the school nurses.

R.C. LACKS $15 FOR DRIVE GOAL; MAP ACTIVITIES

The 1949 Red Cross fund campaign lacked $15 of its $11,185 goal Thursday evening when Chairman Philip M. Jones and his assistant, Richard E. Dreas, made their final report to the county chapter's board of directors at a meeting in chapter headquarters.

Mr. Jones and Mr. Dreas, who will be chairman of the 1950 campaign in the county, discussed with the board plans for future campaigns with a suggestion from the retiring chairman that chairmanships of the various districts rotate from year to year so that no individual will have the responsibility for more than one year. The importance of follow-up visits by the solicitors also was stressed.

Mrs. Albert Bachman, chapter chairman, thanked Jones and Dreas for their services in this year's campaign.

Adopt Program Policy

The chapter adopted a policy under which swimming and water safety instruction will be made available to the largest possible number of persons during the six-week period from June 20 to July 27 when the Battlefield pool has been made available without charge to the Red Cross.

The swimming classes in this community have to be limited to that pool because private pools, the Gettysburg college pool and the Gettysburg Country club pool are not available. Classes will be held each morning, beginning at 9 o'clock. The youngest age group to be handled will be six to eight-year-old youngsters. Qualified instructors are being secured for the classes.

The rapidly expanding program of the Junior Red Cross council in the county was described to the board by Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington, executive secretary. The Juniors have sent 299 gift boxes abroad and high school groups are conducting correspondence and international art exchanges. The Junior Council voted $100 to the National Children's fund and made its first annual donation of books to the Adams County Free library. Plans for the purchase of a motion picture projector for Red Cross use, particularly in rural schools, were reported by the Juniors who asked a $75 donation from the chapter for that undertaking. Action was deferred on the request.

The statement brought out that the department has rejected Soviet efforts to get the Greek situation out of the United Nations and into the hands of the great powers for what amounts to a compromise settlement.

TRAFFIC ROLLS INTO BERLIN; REDS ARE MUM

Berlin, May 20 (AP)—Traffic rolled on all roads to Berlin today without Russian interference, although the Soviets still have not answered western protests against their on-again-off-again rules.

Economists of the Russian and western zones got together for more talks in their deadlocked efforts to arrange for a revival of inter-zone trade. But the whole situation still was a merry-go-round of confusion, with nobody really understanding what lies behind the recent Soviet tactics.

Rail Men Irked

The Russians renewed their accusation that the western military governments are trying to "destroy" the Soviet zone's economy, and the westerners stuck to their old denial.

Berlin railway workers, disgruntled by failure to obtain full payment of their wages in west marks instead of the less valuable Soviet zone currency, threatened to start a crippling transport strike at midnight tonight. Mayor Ernest Reuter of west Berlin said he would meet with leaders of the anti-Communist railway union this afternoon, and hoped to get a settlement.

The Soviets yesterday called off temporarily their ban on the movement of freight trucks on the autobahn, the main road and shortest one linking western Germany to Berlin.

PRESBYTERIANS ELECT BARBOUR

Buffalo, N. Y., May 20 (AP)—The American Presbyterian Church may be united for the first time since Civil War days under the leadership of a minister from Knoxville, Tenn.

Dr. Clifford Edward Barbour, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Knoxville, was elected yesterday moderator of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., at the opening session of the 161st General Assembly. He is the first southerner to hold the office since 1834.

The Presbyterian Church U. S. A. has a membership of about 2,300,000, predominantly northern. The Presbyterian Church U. S. has a membership of about 600,000, with its strength in the south. The two Communions split during the Civil War. Efforts to bring the two back together have been under way, without success, for 11 years. Dr. Barbour indicated that the negotiations will be renewed with greater vigor during his term when he said, upon accepting the office, that he hoped to see the creation of "one great Presbyterian church" within the next year.

Dr. Barbour is a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., but has held the Knoxville pastorate for 21 years. He served as vice-moderator of the General Assembly during the past year.

Dr. Ralph Canfield McAfee, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, Erie, Pa., was the only other nominee for the church's highest office. The official tally gave Dr. Barbour 616 votes and Dr. McAfee 240. The Assembly later voted to make the election unanimous.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

the then current murder case. Many people, it was revealed, read the newspaper regularly because they like to read. When deprived of the newspaper, they would fall back on almost anything at hand—old magazines, even old books. But the newspaper is preferred as a source of reading matter because it is most accessible, because it is cheap, and because the reading matter is divided into small units for easy consumption.

Some women follow the advertisements closely in order to plan their household buying. Others watch the obituary notices, fearful that acquaintances might die without their knowing it.

Another group of readers use the newspapers to make them appear informed in social gatherings—for its conversational value.

Some read the paper, it was found, in order to be brought into indirect personal contact with other people, especially distinguished persons.

For some, reading the newspaper is almost a compulsion or a ritual. They read their newspapers at a particular time of the day, during breakfast, before bedtime, and when the paper was missing they felt lost, could not sleep, felt out of place.

USES PLIERS TO LOCATE WATER

Storystown, Pa., May 20 (AP)—The good people of Storystown have a new respect today for Dave King and his pair of pliers.

Recently the Storystown Water Co. decided it needed a new well but didn't want to dig a lot of test holes. King was called into play as a dowser.

A dowser is a person who claims ability to detect underground water by using a divining rod. Some dowers employ peach tree twigs but King—an Amishman from Pennsylvania's Lancaster county—scorns such old fashioned methods in favor of a pair of wire pliers.

King paced across a plot of ground for the water company until at one point the pliers almost leaped from his grasp.

Predicts Depth
"There's a lot of water here," he announced. Using a pendulum made with a piece of string and a gold ring set in motion over a tumbler of water he counted the number of vibrations.

Water, he said, would be found first at about 141 feet, again at 200 and 291 feet.

Despite the skepticism of a few residents, the water company started drilling. Yesterday, they reported, the drillers reached the 141-foot mark—and water gushed forth.

Yes sir, that Dave King and his pliers are highly considered in these parts now.

14 CARS BLOCK PENNSY TRACKS

Railway, N. J., May 20 (AP)—Fourteen freight cars were derailed here at dawn today blocking all six tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad's main line to Philadelphia.

With only one through track cleared by seven A. M. to handle all east-west traffic, the railroad said commuters would be delayed considerably. A railroad spokesman said there were no injuries reported.

The Pennsylvania said wrecking crews were on the spot, but could not estimate how soon the bottleneck would be broken.

Broken tracks were twisted high in the air and ties were chewed up for 500 feet as the 79-car freight train derailed.

About half the derailed cars were flat cars carrying loads of heavy wire. Some box cars carrying heavy duty motor cylinders were smashed open, and the freight strewn across the roadbed and down the embankment.

The accident occurred just west of Railway station, where the shore lines come into the main Pennsylvania line. One flat car straddled the tunnel where the North Jersey Coast Shore Line comes in.

RUSSIANS ASK CONFERENCE ON WAR IN GREECE

Athens, May 20 (AP)—The Greek cabinet met today to discuss Russian proposals to end the three-year-old civil war, but there was little enthusiasm in Athens over the development.

Qualified observers here said that while the Moscow offer might sound good in some respects on the surface, "we've got to look for the joker."

A Moscow announcement from Tass, the official Soviet news agency, suggested negotiations on the basis of recent peace offers of the Communist-led guerrillas. Athens already has rejected these.

The unofficial reaction in Athens was that if the big powers want peace in Greece, it can be achieved, but hope was expressed that Greece would not be sacrificed to Moscow aims.

Allies Support Greece

This point of view was bolstered by an announcement of the British Foreign Office that Athens would be consulted on any moves and Britain would refuse to negotiate a settlement "behind the back of the Greek government." The Greeks also were cheered by reports that this was the official Washington attitude, too.

The Moscow announcement, relayed by the official news agency Tass, said Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko proposed in New York recently that if the three big powers decided to negotiate the Greek problem they should call for general amnesty, an end to hostilities and broad-based elections under international supervision. Gromyko also proposed a border commission, something the Soviets up to now have opposed.

Unless the United States forced the Greek government to comply, Athens is likely to reject participation of the EAM (National Liberation Front) in election. The government says EAM, wartime resistance movement, now is in Communist hands.

Guerrillas Battered

Likewise, Greece would probably reject a full amnesty and any proposal to treat the self-proclaimed guerrilla government on the same level with the Athens government.

It would be difficult for the Greeks to agree to withdrawal of American military aid, at least until they were sure a real peace was at hand.

It is known that high military authorities in Athens are convinced the badly battered guerrillas can be fully defeated this year. Thus the Greeks might remain unwilling, as in the past, to accept anything but unconditional surrender.

Explosion Danger In 900 U.S. Mines

Washington, May 20 (AP)—Reports of federal inspectors show there are 900 mines in the United States "that might have an explosion at any time," says C. F. Davis, safety director for the United Mine Workers of America.

Davis testified before a Senate labor subcommittee yesterday. The group is considering a bill empowering the Federal Bureau of Mines to have coal miners withdrawn from mines where imminent dangers exist.

He said: "Until you give the Federal Bureau of Mines the right to close down these mines or sections of mines where dangers exist, the state mine departments are not going to enforce the law."

"In most states, if mine inspectors took full advantage of their authority under the law they couldn't last ten minutes."

Wheel Flies Off Car; Kills Girl

Camden, N. J., May 20 (AP)—Little Joanne Iannaco was playing in the yard of her home along the White Horse pike yesterday afternoon. Suddenly a wheel came hurtling into the yard and hit her.

She died of her injuries today. Police said the wheel snapped off a car driving along the highway and raced 350 yards downhill into the Iannaco yard.

The driver of the car, Raymond Jeffrey of Philadelphia brought his skidding car to halt without suffering any injury.

SEEK TO STOP AEC FUNDS TO EDUCATE REDS

Washington, May 20 (AP)—Senators moved today to tighten up atomic energy security from two directions. Senator O'Mahoney (Dem. Wyo.) said he will "close any technical gaps" which might permit the Atomic Energy Commission's funds to be spent for the education of Communists.

And Senator McMahon (D.-Conn.) said the Senate-House Atomic Energy committee, which he heads, will meet behind closed doors Monday in an effort to learn how the Argonne National Laboratories in Chicago happened to lose an ounce of uranium-235 last February.

Red Gap Fellowship
O'Mahoney is chairman of a Senate appropriations subcommittee which is considering a $1,090,000,000 spending bill for the Atomic Energy Commission for the year beginning July 1. Commission officials were to testify again today.

O'Mahoney already has made it plain that the subcommittee is going to write language into the money bill to bar Communists from taking part in the atomic agency's multi-million dollar scientific education program.

The issue has raised a storm in Congress since it was disclosed a few days ago that Communist Hans Freistadt had received a fellowship under the program.

Ask Public Hearings
The disclosure of the missing uranium—almost all of which has been recovered now—came on the heels of the Freistadt flurry, and commission officials have had a busy time explaining both matters to Congress.

McMahon reported the FBI believes no espionage was involved in the temporary loss of the fissionable material. But he told the Senate yesterday he is not satisfied with the commission's explanation of the loss.

He said he will propose to the committee that the matter be aired at public hearings.

LEWIS SEEKING RETURN TO AFL

Cleveland, May 20 (AP)—AFL leaders said today that John L. Lewis is dickering to return to the American Federation of Labor.

It he does, he will face strong opposition to any effort to come into power again in the AFL, these influential men predict.

President William Green reported to the AFL executive council on a meeting with Lewis two weeks ago. Green had indicated earlier that the session with the mine workers' leader had been devoted principally to the fight over repeal of the Taft-Hartley act.

But one top AFL leader said that Lewis was anxious to come back to the organization "on any terms" now because of the imminence of his own contract showdown with the soft coal industry July 1. Also, any new labor law enacted in the next two months may carry provisions directed squarely at Lewis, the AFL leader thinks.

Lewis took his 600,000 miners out of the AFL in December 1947, after he lost a convention fight in San Francisco to persuade the federation to boycott the Taft-Hartley act. He has done so himself, but other AFL leaders decided to comply with the act where they had to, including the filing of non-Communist affidavits.

Those who say Lewis is making peace overtures think he wants to become head of the AFL on retirement of 75-year-old Green, a former mine worker who has held the post since 1924. Lewis many times has denied any such ambition.

EXPLAINS WHY HE WAS FIRED

Frankfurt, Germany, May 20 (AP)—Charles H. Collison said Thursday he was fired from the authority assigned to smash German monopolies "because it is known that I favor carrying out decartelization honestly."

Collison, who was deputy chief of the American-British decartelization authority, said he testified before the Army Department's Cartel Investigation Commission last year that "the decartelization program in Germany was being sabotaged and obstructed."

"I have been fired in anticipation of the arrival of the U. S. high commissioner for Germany, John J. McCloy, because it is known that I favor carrying out decartelization honestly," he told a reporter, without elaborating this statement further.

McCloy has just been appointed to the top German post, heading the American civilian control which takes over with the retirement of the military governor, Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

Collison said he was given to understand two later requests that he resign were the result of testimony to the Army Commission. He refused to resign.

Probe Drowning Of Noted Author

New York, May 20 (AP)—An autopsy report was awaited today in the death of Thomas Hegen, 29, war-veteran author of the best-seller, "Mr. Roberts," which he helped convert into the Broadway smash hit.

Hegen was found drowned yesterday in a half-filled bathtub in his apartment. A nearly empty bottle of sleeping pills was on a washstand.

Dr. Leopold Bellak, a Manhattan psychiatrist, said Hegen had been receiving treatments from him for some time.

The doctor said he could not divulge details of Hegen's case, except to say the author had been mentally depressed. He said he had prescribed sleeping pills for insomnia.

Police theorized that Hegen might have taken an overdose of sleeping pills, entered the bath to try to overcome his drowsiness, then dozed off and drowned.

Tragedy Strikes Two Little Tots

West Chester, Pa., May 20 (AP)—A three-year-old girl was killed by an automobile when she slipped away from her mother, crawled through a fence and ran out on a highway.

Police said a car driven by Henry Winters, chauffeur for Owen H. Spencer of Media, struck Joanne Cressley.

Spencer, who was in the car, and Winters told the police the child ran into the path of the car.

Abington, Pa., May 20 (AP)—Two-year-old Richard H. Williams was expected to undergo an operation today for removal of a bullet which struck him while he was playing in the backyard of his home last night.

Police said a man using a .22 caliber rifle to shoot rodents near his home had been taken into custody for questioning.

The bullet struck the child in the shoulder.

ANGLERS LINE UP AT FISHERMAN'S PARADISE TODAY

Bellefonte, Pa., May 20 (AP)—Excellent fishing prospects were in store today as thousands of anglers converged here for the opening of Pennsylvania's famed trout mecca—fisherman's paradise.

Light local showers last night improved fishing conditions at the three-mile stretch along nearby Spring Creek, said C. R. Buller, chief state fish culturist.

Buller predicted that last year's opening day crowd of more than 2,000 anglers would be surpassed by tonight. He reported that more than 50-automobiles were lined up at the gate at midnight waiting for registration beginning at 6 a. m., EST.

Gong Rang at 8 A. M.

The gong opening the 56-day fishing season rang at 8 a. m., the starting time each day of the open season. Anglers must leave the creek at 8 p. m., EST, each night. No fishing is permitted on Sundays. The season closes July 23.

C. A. French, executive director, and other members of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission were on hand for the opening. They joined with the other rod and reel enthusiasts in spending the day casting out into the narrow creek for the speckled beauties.

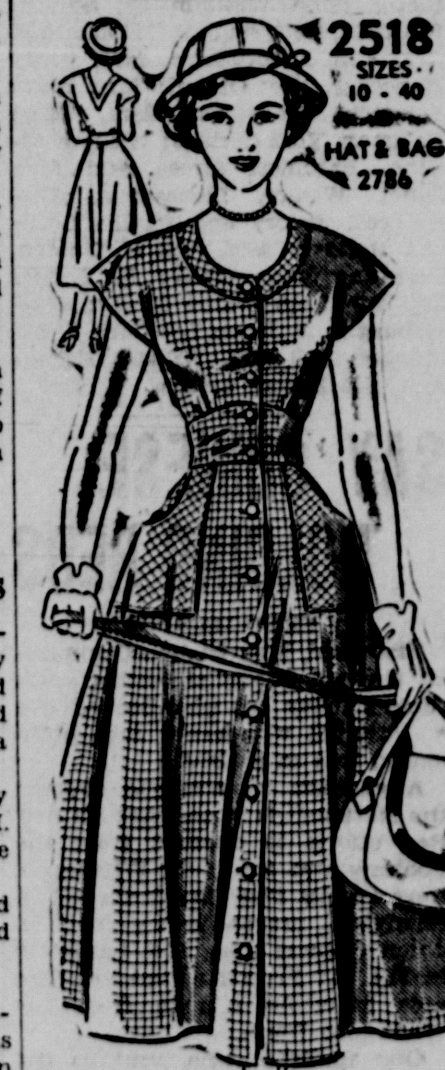

Both men and women, in separate divisions, lined the banks to try for the plentiful brook, brown and rainbow trout. The stream is heavily stocked by the commission from its adjoining fishfarm, one the largest in the world.

Last year 28,566 fishermen from all parts of the country flocked to the paradise for the fun of hooking the spot's big trout. They took home 10,791 fish. Many more than that number were hooked but only one may be killed per angler each day.

Nine other trout may be hooked each day and thrown back in. Rules specify that only flies be used and one person is permitted to visit the paradise on five different trips during the season.

All anglers will be attempting to better the record catch made last year by Francis Patch, Johnstown. That trout weighed 17 pounds and measured 30½ inches.

The fish commission held its annual meeting at the paradise yesterday prior to the opening and the members were honored at a dinner in Bellefonte.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
THE BEAUTIFUL MAPLE
FOR weeks now I have been watching my favorite maple tree that stands like a sentinel, viewed from my writing table in my library. I bought it many years ago, when it was hardly more than eight feet high, and I paid $10.00 for it. Today it stands like a queen, in all its Springtime beauty and glory, and it reaches higher than my home's roof.

All during the days of Autumn I watched the leaves of another Springtime, gradually, silently, and beautifully, change their colors, each day more colorful than the day before—until finally each found its place on the bosom of Mother Earth, and only the tree's bare branches remained.

Now, however, my maple's life has been resurrected to its old time glory, and perhaps many a seed has been carried by the wind to some fertile spot where its own life may be duplicated in following years. Nature is so deathless.

When a boy I used to tap a large number of sugar maples and boil the sap into syrup that my mother put into cans for the following Winter. My love for this syrup seems to grow with the years, but none tastes so delicious as that which I made myself in those early Michigan days. I wonder if the memory doesn't have something to do with it, however?

Maple trees have always intrigued me for their foliage is so abundant and lavish. Today I watched the gentle wind sway the new leaves, as though they were hanging from the throat of a Princess! I watched the robins light upon some of the branches, and watched the gray squirrels jump from limb to limb and then crawl down to the earth and off for some hidden nut. And I watched the morning sunlight spread its silver and gold upon the new-born leaves.

To plant a maple, and give it care, is one of the best investments that anyone can make about his home. Its growth and increasing beauty will amaze you. Each year will increase its beauty and repay you times over for cost and labor in its behalf. It's a generous tree and its shade is like that of a mother's arms.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Dependables."

DESTINY
We are blunderers all, for there seems to be
No way the result of our lives to see
Tomorrow is hidden, and there's no light
Clearly to show us the wrong from right.
We grope in the dark with hope and fear,
But we never know all that is happening here.

A baby is born and the first faint cry
Changes the lives of all those nearby.
Boy meets girl and the smiles and tears
That follow many run through a thousand years.

A spark is dropped, and we'll never learn
Through how many homes that fire will burn.
We are blunderers all. But a lifetime through
We help or we harm by whatever we do,
For we carry about as we come and go
The joys and sorrows of all we know.
Whatever our purpose, it seems that we
Are a part of that secret called destiny.

NEW BUILDING AUTHORITY IS READY TO ACT

Harrisburg, May 20 (AP)—The way was clear today for the new general state building authority to take over the commonwealth's multi-million dollar institutional building program.

A new law signed by Gov. James H. Duff authorizes the executive to transfer any building contracts still uncompleted to the authority, thus reserving millions in state funds for other purposes.

The 1949 Legislature appropriated some $30,000,000 more than estimated revenues are expected to produce in the next two years.

The new authority law will permit the governor to turn over the financing of pending contracts to the new authority without touching current or previous appropriations for construction of mental hospitals, flood control or other projects.

Can Issue Bonds
The authority, re-established by the 1949 Legislature, was authorized to issue bonds up to $175,000,000 for construction with the financing by rentals from state agencies. The authorization was $28,000,000 greater than the $147,000,000 authority program recommended by Duff.

The new law also allows the governor to transfer existing buildings, lands and other property to either the general authority or the new highway and bridge authority or the public school building authority.

The highway authority was established to carry out a $40,000,000 building program and thus remove the need for a two-cent instead of one-cent bond in the state's gasoline tax on June 1.

The public school authority was set up in 1947 to aid local school districts build new schools. The construction will be carried out by the school authority with local districts paying off the cost through rentals extending over as long as 40 years.

EX-ACTRESS WHO DIED IN POVERTY HAD BIG ESTATE

New York, May 20 (AP)—She probably just forgot.

That's the opinion of an attorney who investigated the strange case of the fortune of Flora Esmond, one-time vaudeville star.

She died, at 76, last October 2 of malnutrition.

A collection of junk—old trunks, boxes, newspaper clippings—littered her west side flat.

At the time, it was thought she died virtually penniless, except for some Queens real estate listed in her name.

But little memorandum slips in one of the trunks aroused the curiosity of James E. Doherty, Jr., an attorney who was named executor for her estate.

The slips bore notations such as "N.R. for John" and "N.J. long E. me."

Finally he decided the notes might

SIGNS LAW TO CONTROL MINE SUBSIDENCE

Harrisburg, May 20 (AP)—Local authorities in the state's coal regions now have the power to buy coal pillars to prevent mine cave-ins.

Gov. James H. Duff signed into law a measure offered in the 1949 General Assembly as a substitute for a state-wide program to combat mine subsidence and mine fires.

The first program, dropped due to opposition from coal operators, would have called for a one or two cents a ton tax on coal to finance the rehabilitation of areas damaged represent bank accounts. He sent out mimeographed letters to several hundred banks asking if Flora Esmond ever had an account.

News of deposits began to pour in from banks along the vaudeville circuit all over the eastern seaboard.

One $17,000 Deposit
Doherty sent out more letters, inquiring about safe deposit boxes, and listing names used by Miss Esmond on the stage—"Flora Bruce, Flora Kirton, Florence Bruce, Flora Lamph." News of more dollars rolled in from points as far west as Chicago.

The total, by yesterday, had reached $110,000. One notation, "Hud Me," led to a $17,000 deposit in the Hudson Trust Company of Hoboken, N. J.

Most of the funds had been deposited many years ago, while Miss Esmond was touring at the height of her career. In her later years, she apparently had lived in deep poverty, never touching the scattered bank accounts.

Establish in the 1947 anthracite marketing law a new grade of hard coal—substandard anthracite—and bar mixing of it with standard grade coal with the designation of the product as standard anthracite.

Appropriation of $702,000 for the by cave-ins and to fill up mines liable to result in surface collapses. The plan also contemplated use of coal tax funds to combat mine fires in the soft coal region.

Right To Condemn

The measure approved by Duff authorizes any political subdivision to acquire by gift, agreement, lease or purchase underground coal to prevent subsidence, collapse or caving in of the surface.

The action can be taken to prevent damage or destruction to any public buildings, industrial structure or private dwellings in built up localities.

In event no agreement can be reached with owners of the underground coal, the local authorities are authorized to condemn the coal with the provision that the price fixed also include "consequential damages" defined as development cost and loss of profits.

Other new laws signed by Duff included measures to:

Require posting of the anthracite mine safety law in pamphlet form at mines.

Establish in the 1947 anthracite marketing law a new grade of hard coal—substandard anthracite—and bar mixing of it with standard grade coal with the designation of the product as standard anthracite.

a young woman's story that she watched while Metropolitan Opera Tenor John Garris was shot to death.

The 19-year-old blonde, booked as Alma Johnson, alias Mary Smith, of Richmond, Va., is being held in a charge of suspicion of narcotics. She was taken into custody on an anonymous tip that she knew something about the slaying. Chief Herbert Jenkins of the Atlanta police force declined to comment on the woman's story.

The body of the tall operatic singer was found April 21 in a rain-soaked alley a short distance from the terminal railroad station. The opera specials left the terminal a few hours before the body was found.

Police Reporter Keeler McCartney of the Atlanta Constitution said two Atlanta policemen, Miss Emily Hart and Mrs. Evelyn Langford, told him Miss Johnson related this story:

She met Garris in Charlotte, N. C., almost three years ago. She said Garris was the father of her 18-month-old child. She, another girl and two men came to Atlanta to see a singer. She wanted Garris to contribute to the child's support. The four met the tenor near the terminal station the night of the slaying. A fight ensued, Garris removed his coat, and one of the men shot the singer.

FRANCO RAPS DEMOCRACIES, GIFTS TO REDS

Madrid, May 20 (P) — Generalissimo Francisco Franco said Wednesday the "greater part of Europe" had been handed to Russia by the western democracies.

He also charged the Democracies with "systematic aggression" against Spain.

Only two days after the United Nations General Assembly had refused to lift its ban on top diplomatic representation in Spain, Franco declared he would not permit closer ties between Spain and the west unless the democracies changed their policies.

In a direct reference to the United Nations action, he said Spain must "demand the fundamental disappearance of the illegality, injustice and immorality of a false accusation."

Francisco's 90-minute speech to the Spanish parliament concentrated on attacking France, Britain and Russia.

Scores Concessions

He declared Spain never would join with the west until "injuries, maneuvers and systematic aggression" against her were ended. "In this critical hour, Europe needs us," he added.

Continuing his attacks on the western powers, Franco castigated "concessions being made to Russia" which, he said, will prevent peace in Europe until "corrected."

He declared such concessions were made to increase the powers "zones of influence."

"This," Franco said, "was the policy of evil influence which brought on the last war and, despite the goodwill of American policy, handed the greater part of Europe to Russia."

TAMMANY HALL ATTACKED AGAIN

New York, May 20 (P) — Tammany Hall, set back by Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr.'s election punch, faced attack from two new quarters today.

Samuel Seabury, famed investigator and ex-judge who master-minded three winning campaigns for the late Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, started to rally the old anti-Tammany "fusion" forces again.

And Democratic Mayor William O'Dwyer was reported launching a new drive for a housecleaning in Tammany Hall, which he once called "a gutter club."

Ex-Judge Seabury's move for a rebirth of fusion was aimed at O'Dwyer as well as at Tammany Hall.

Seabury said yesterday that O'Dwyer's administration is as "flagrantly political and wasteful as any in the city's history."

"If fusion can be reunited this year," the veteran civic crusader said, "there is a better than even chance of a return to an anti-Tammany city administration."

O'Dwyer, who was supported by Tammany when he ran four years ago but has been feuding with its present leadership, is expected to run for reelection next fall. But he has not announced it.

In the center of the auditorium was a large "Wishing Well," designed by the juniors. On the stage were large palms, large baskets of spring flowers and multi-colored flood lights. At the foot of the stage was a statue of the Blessed Mother, who during the grand march, was presented with a corsage of pink rosebuds by Bernardette Arnold, president of the senior class and her escort, William Myers. The grand march was led by Miss Barbara Baron and Carroll Frock. Each senior was presented with a white rose by Mrs. Clarence Wachter and William Myers, Music for the dance was furnished by Paul Leatherwood and his eight-piece orchestra from Westminster. Door prizes were won by Miss Nancy Gerken and Guy Baker, Jr. The committee in charge of the dance included Mrs. Bernard Boyle chairman, assisted by Mrs. Clarence Wachter, Mrs. Henry Gerken, Mrs. A. Karlquist, Mrs. Dominic Greco, Mrs. Hubert Joy, Mrs. George Rosensteel and Mrs. Andrew Jordan.

MINE SAFETY GETS BACKING

Washington, May 20 (P) — A bill that would permit a federal mine inspector to order workers out of dangerous coal mines had the support of the U. S. Bureau of Mines and the United Mine Workers today.

The measure, proposed by Senator Neely (D-W.Va.) and six others, provides that any mine manager who fails to comply with such an order would be subject to a fine of up to $500 and 60 days in jail.

The Bureau of Mines, which has urged the penalties be increased to a $2,000 fine and six months in jail, now has the power only to inform mine management of hazards and to recommend corrections.

Testifying Wednesday before a

Senate Labor subcommittee, J. J. Forbes, chief of the bureau's Health and Safety division, said that only 25 per cent of the bureau's safety recommendations were complied with from 1941, when federal coal mine inspection began, until March 25, 1947, when the Centralia mine disaster occurred in Illinois.

After the Centralia disaster, he said, compliance rose for a time to 45 per cent and then dropped back to an average of 41 per cent between June, 1947, and July, 1948.

C. F. Davis, safety director for the United Mine Workers, testified the proposed bill is one his union has been supporting for years. "Refusal of Congress to pass such legislation has been largely based on statements of coal operators and various state departments of mines that (state) laws now in existence were adequate to protect the life and limb of coal miners to the greatest degree possible," he said.

Sally Makes Good On Hotel's Claim

Pittsburgh, May 20 (P) — Everything is rosy again today between Fan Dancer Sally Rand and the Hotel Pittsburgh.

Officials of the hotel filed charges of defrauding an innkeeper against Sally after they said her check in payment of a $366.40 hotel bill came back marked insufficient funds. Miss Rand appeared at a theater here last week.

Wednesday at Youngstown, O., where she is currently appearing, Sally said it was all just a mistake. Escorted by two detectives, she went to a telephone office and wired the $366.40 to Pittsburgh.

Later, Pittsburgh City Detective John Doresey said all charges were dropped.

Senate yesterday refused to suspend its rules to open the way for a vote on a proposal to cut the agriculture appropriations bill by five per cent. Martin voted for suspension of the rules. Myers opposed the measure.

Perennial Measure Gets Duff Veto

Harrisburg, May 20 (P) — A perennial measure for refunding to local communities taxes on land taken over by the state received its usual answer — it was vetoed by Gov. James H. Duff.

That marks the third time such a proposal has been rejected by a governor. Duff did it in 1947 after former Gov. Edward Martin started the practice in 1945.

The measure proposed that the state pay local governments enough money to make up for taxes lost when the commonwealth takes over property to secure payment of funds due the state.

Duff's comment on the proposal: "The language of the present bill is not sufficiently specific or precise to accomplish its purpose."

 NOTICE OF MASTER'S HEARING

CIO COMMIES ARE DEFYING BIGWIG BOARD

Washington, May 20 (AP)—The CIO has shoved the leaders of its left-wing minority toward an outright break with the parent organization, and more shoves are coming.

This is the meaning of the three-day meeting of the 52-man CIO executive board which ended last night with the board's demand for the resignations of all its members who won't abide by official CIO policies.

Nobody resigned.

CIO President Philip Murray publicly announced that the CIO is facing up to "A Communist situation" which must be dealt with at the CIO convention starting October 31 in Cleveland.

Harry Bridges, head of the CIO Longshoremen's union, who was by far the most talkative of the left-wing group at the board meeting, told a reporter the board action had "nothing to do with Communism."

He said it was strictly a question of whether CIO unions are to run their own affairs or whether they must take orders from the CIO.

Bridges Defiant

Bridges also said he wouldn't resign from the board or lead his union out of the CIO.

Murray and the board, by a three-day stream of stern warnings and resolutions, told the left-wingers—and especially Bridges—that if they don't end their defiance of CIO decisions such as supporting the Marshall Plan, they will be dealt with by the convention.

Murray pointed out to newsmen that the convention has power to revoke union charters and knock members off the 52-man CIO executive board.

All of the CIO's 41 unions are represented on the board. Most of them are represented by their presidents.

7,000 Carpenters Return To Work

Philadelphia, May 20 (AP)—More than 7,000 carpenters returned to work today under a new agreement providing a 15-cents an hour wage increase. They had been on strike four days, crippling both home building and general construction in the Philadelphia area.

The hourly rate of the union workers was boosted to $2.40 under the agreement reached last night.

Woman Bailed For Chaining Sister

York, Pa., May 20 (AP)—A woman accused of chaining her sister to a bed joined her husband today in awaiting court action on an assault and battery charge.

Mrs. Alverta Gable posted $500 bond yesterday after a hearing before Alderman Carl C. Barnhart. Her husband, William H. Gable, 58, is under a $1,000 bond in the same case on a similar charge.

Ellen Swemley, 48, testified she was struck on the head by her sister with a section of chain on May 2 after she broke bonds that fastened her to a metal bed.

Sheriff Clyde F. Bentzel said he found Miss Swemley chained to a bed in the Gable house after neighbors notified police.

DUTRA'S VISIT HELD SYMBOL OF FRIENDSHIP

(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The visit of amity by Brazilian President Eurico Dutra to the United States is a happy burst of sunshine through the international storm clouds.

It is symbolic of a great friendship which cannot be too assiduously guarded in these days when the western hemisphere must stand together for the common good.

President Dutra's stay with us got away to a fine start when official Washington, aware that he was arriving on his sixty-fourth birthday, staged a surprise party—cake and all—with President Truman as genial hosts. It was the sort of thing which captures the fancy of Americans, and sets them to humming "happy birthday to you." So we are glad to see General Dutra.

In an address before a joint session of the Senate and House, the general referred to relations between Brazil and America "as a rare example of fraternal association of two peoples which has prevailed over a period of more than 120 years." He spoke of President Truman's visit to Rio De Janeiro in 1947 for the signing of the historic inter-American defense pact, and said it was a memorable event in the friendship of the two nations.

"In the international field," declared the general, "this friendship, through its practical manifestations and by virtue of its example, is the greatest guarantee of good understanding and comprehension among the other sister nations in this hemisphere."

Dutra said the inter-American defense pact "established the reciprocity of the American republics in common bond against aggression." That is true—at least on paper—but he might have added that such an agreement to be effective must be supported by constant cultivation of friendships and study of ways and means to strengthen the association.

The visit of general Dutra to the United States is of course an excellent illustration of how friendships can be cultivated. And naturally it is pleasing to see the two largest countries of the hemisphere moving in such close harmony.

It is well for the Americas to remind themselves that they still are the "new world." The known resources of this hemisphere which still remain undeveloped are tremendous. Who can say that those resources don't exceed the total for the rest of the world?

Certainly if we stand together, one for all and all for one, there will come the time when the Americas need have no fear of aggression.

Government Closes Cases Against Reds

New York, May 20 (AP)—The prosecution completed its case in the Communist conspiracy trial yesterday and Federal Judge Harold R. Medina indicated strongly he would over-rule the usual defense motions for dismissal today.

"I am wholly at a loss to see what arguments could be presented by the defense," Judge Medina told defense attorneys. "The evidence submitted by the government is of such character there seems to be very little room for discussion. I don't see how I could fail to submit this case to the jury."

Defense counsel, caught by surprise late yesterday when the government rested its case against eleven top U. S. Communist leaders, aimed new attacks on the conspiracy indictment today.

The defendants—who compose the party's American "Politburo"—are charged with conspiracy to advocate overthrow of the government by force and violence. The trial has been under way for 18 weeks.

Acheson Leaves For Paris Conference Pledged To "No Compromise" Policy

RECOVERY OF WEST EUROPE CHIEF CONCERN

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Washington, May 20 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson leaves for the Paris foreign ministers conference today pledged to a virtual "no compromise" policy in his dealing with Russia on the future of Germany.

In a pre-departure statement he made clear that his primary concern will be not an east-west agreement on Germany made just for the sake of agreeing. Instead he spoke of a determination to protect the economic recovery and political stability of all western Europe in which Germany plays a vital part.

"We shall neglect no real opportunity for increasing the area of solution and tranquility in the world," Acheson declared. "At the same time, we shall not barter away successes achieved in western Germany and western Europe for the sake of promises which might again prove to be illusory as they too offer have in the past."

New Problem
In his last rounds of preparation for the Paris meeting, Acheson was confronted with a new problem: what attitude to take before the world on Russia's apparent bid for a settlement on the Greek civil war? News of the bid was circulated today by the Russian news agency, Tass.

While Tass denied there had been any talks for including the Greek question on the work schedule for Paris, there was an obvious significance to the matter in the whole east-west conflict. Wary caution was the prompt Washington reaction to the Russian proposal.

Acheson's departure today was set for noon EST. With him in President Truman's big plane, the independence, he arranged to take Mrs. Acheson, John Foster Dulles, his Republican adviser, and Mrs. Dulles and two assistants, Lucius D. Battle and Robert G. Barnes. The conference will open Monday.

In Better Position Now
Acheson's statement on his policy approach to the new meeting of the council of foreign ministers was issued here after he had previewed his policies and plans with the Senate Foreign Relations committee. He was said to have received the committee's full bi-Partisan support.

He thought perhaps the opportunity for success would be better in Paris than in the 1947 meetings at Moscow and London. But he

Masked Bandit Gets $9,000 In Jewelry

Pittsburgh, May 20 (AP)—A young, masked burglar early today forced his way into a Shadyside home and robbed a physician's wife of about $9,000 in jewelry.

Mrs. Ruth P. Day said she was awakened by a rustling noise and turned on a light. She told police a voice said: "turn out that light or I'll shoot you." She added: "I turned it out and the man turned on a flashlight."

He demanded to know where her jewelry was. Mrs. Day told him they were in a drawer. He took the jewelry and agreed not to tie her up if she promised to be quiet. She told police: "The man said 'give me 10 minutes' and backed out the door and ran down the steps." Her 12-year old daughter and a maid were sleeping nearby. Her husband, Dr. Kenneth M. Day, is attending a convention in New York.

added that if failure is to be the result of the Paris session the west can take it.

PACT HEARINGS NOT ATTRACTIVE TO U.S. PUBLIC

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, May 20 (AP)—All over the country it must have been something like this:

The husband was sitting in the living room, thumbing through the newspaper, and the wife looked up from her sewing.

She said: "I was talking with Mrs. Diefenderfer today and she said..."

The husband, looking at something on an inside page, interrupted: "Is see they finished the hearings on the Atlantic Pact."

"Oh," the wife said. "I wasn't following it."

Lots Of Indifference
"Me neither," the husband said. "What was the business about Mrs. Diefenderfer, Dordorfer, Deffen-dorfer, or what's her name?"

There must have been a lot of the same indifference to the pact around the country. Judging from what happened here.

For three weeks the Senate Foreign Relations committee had held hearings on the pact, and finished this week.

But most of the time it played to a half-empty house although the seats at the hearings were free, there were plenty of them, and joining the pact would be one of the most far-reaching moves in this country's history.

Why wasn't there more public interest?

For one thing, no one has doubted the committee would approve the pact. And no one doubts the full Senate, when it gets around to voting, will overwhelmingly approve it, too.

But a couple of other things explain the lack of deep public interest in the history-making hearings:

1. This country has moved a long way from its isolationism, which existed even as recently as the 1930's.

Those were the days when Congress passed neutrality acts to keep this country out of war by refusing to ship arms to countries that got into war.

But once we got into the war, we got into one foreign tie-up after another, and we've been doing it ever since.

So there's nothing unusual in one more step that puts us deeper into world affairs.

2. The attitude toward Russia and Communism has grown amazingly hard and tough in this country.

So the public has come to accept pretty much without question anything the government considers necessary to throw another block in the road of Communism.

Harrisburg, May 20 (AP)—Gov. James H. Duff vetoed a bill amending the 1947 local tax law on the grounds a similar provision already has been written into law. The provision bars collection of gross receipt taxes on the trade-in allowance included in the re-sale price of used automobiles or other merchandise.

PENNA. EDITORS MEETING TODAY

State College, Pa., May 20 (AP)—The need to "needle the American citizen to think for himself" was emphasized today at the annual Pennsylvania Editorial conference.

Miss Rebecca F. Gross, editor, Lock Haven Express, said in an address before the conference that was one job for the editor of a small city newspaper.

Editors and publishers from all sections of the state came here for the two-day conference arranged by the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers association and the Department of Journalism of the Pennsylvania State college.

Subjects up for discussion included treatment of labor news and the newspaper's responsibilities to local government.

"On most papers of 10,000 circulation or less," Miss Gross said in her prepared address, "the editorial page is handled by someone who does it in the time he can spare or steal from other work. Yet the work of these one-man editorial pages is tremendously important."

"It is important that somebody should be needing American citizens to do a little thinking of their own, and no one can do it better than the one-man editorial page pilot."

After graduation comes opportunity!

The approach of Commencement Day 1949, brings many high school seniors face to face with a big question — what next? There's one big opportunity to which every high school graduate should give serious consideration. This is the career offered you in today's Regular Army.

Few openings in private enterprise offer you the leadership training, the educational advantages, the exciting travel and adventure, the supervised sports and recreation programs and the clean, wholesome, active life that can be yours with an Army enlistment.

Few openings offer you such comradeship with America's finest young men—for today—only the best are acceptable for service in the United States Army.

To win a place in today's Regular Army you must pass physical examinations that are tougher — mental examinations more difficult — than ever before.

And with these more rigid requirements you will face keener all-round competition for assignment to the more than 200 courses offered at Army technical and specialty schools.

The rewards are also greater — opportunity for advancement is limited only by your ability and initiative. Many of today's general officers began their careers as Privates. Some of today's Privates may be our future Generals!

Appointments to Officer's Candidate Schools and to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point are available to those who can make the grade. In what other field can you aspire so high?

You owe it to yourself to get all the facts. See the friendly recruiting officer at your local U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station today. He will be happy to give you full details without any obligation to you.

Lions club held Tuesday evening in the social hall of Redeemer's Reformed church. A roast beef dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid society of the church to 83 Lions, their ladies and other guests, among whom were District Governor and Mrs. Robert B. Snyder, South Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Horner, this place.

The birthday of Mrs. John D. Basehoar, wife of Lion Basehoar, which occurred Thursday, was observed and Mrs. Basehoar was presented with a birthday cake. Recorded music was provided during the meal by White's Electrical service. Entertainment included vocal selections of old favorites and popular songs by the Young trio, composed of the Misses Ruby and Betty Young and Steward Young, of Uniontown. A request encore was "Winter Wonderland," which is the number they sang at the Taneytown Lions amateur show, to win first prize.

Judge Sheely spoke on the general subject "Getting the Most Out of Life," and he stated that "you can't get something for nothing; you get out of life what you put into it, in home life as well as community life. If we expect anything from the youth of our day, something must first be done for them, to keep them from the paths of juvenile delinquency." Judge Sheely also stated that "in a democracy, we get out of it what we pay for it, and if we want peace, we must be willing to pay the price of peace."

Chester S. Byers, chairman of the constitution and by-laws committee, who were in charge of the program, was toastmaster. Mr. Byers presented Lion Wilbur A. Bankert who introduced the speaker. The Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's church, gave the invocation. Other committee members were George G. Collins and Worthy A. Crabb.

ECONOMY BLOC IN SENATE TO TRY ONCE MORE

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

Washington, May 20 (AP) — Economy-talking Senators bounced back for another try today after suffering three straight defeats in their drive to cut federal spending.

One undaunted Democratic senator in the economy group proposed by far the deepest cut yet—a 39 per cent slash in the army civil functions bill.

Sponsored by Senator Douglas (D-Ill.), the amendment would whack $300,000,000 out of the $751,000,000 measure up for Senate debate. Even those backing the economy move most vigorously predicted privately that Douglas' proposal would be scuttled.

Three Rejections
One reason they cited is that the bill carries $722,000,000 for development of rivers and harbors and for flood control projects scattered throughout the country. Dozens of senators are plugging for projects in their own states.

In addition to the Douglas amendment, the Senate had before it the new standard proposal sponsored by Republican Senators Ferguson (Mich.) and Bridges (N. H.) to cut the bill by five per cent.

The have offered that one on all three money bills passed by the Senate so far, and each time the idea was rejected.

Decisive Victory
The third defeat came late yesterday on the $1,465,000,000 Agriculture Department bill. The measure passed the Senate by a voice vote and went back to the House, which allowed $21,000,000 less.

Before the final action there were two attempts to whittle the Senate total. They both failed, by votes of 52 to 32 and 50 to 32.

Those two votes gave the backers of administration budget plans their most decisive victory since the start of the economy drive. But the argument was hot and at times furious.

Senator Tydings (D-Md.) accused the Republicans leading the spend-

State CIO Lays Political Plans

Harrisburg, May 20 (AP)—The state CIO mustered its 630,000 membership today to attempt "a great political change" in Pennsylvania. The labor group's district leaders mapped plans for an intensive political action drive designed to "reach into every home."

The all-out campaign was approved yesterday at closing session here of the CIO-Pennsylvania Industrial Union council's annual convention.

"The place to get the kind of government we want is at the ballot box," a resolution asserted. It added that "every monstrous blow at social betterment is the direct result of failure to register and vote right."

"Pennsylvania needs a great political change to a government which will throw with the will for industrial welfare," the resolution stated.

Harrisburg, May 20 (AP)—The CIO-Pennsylvania Industrial Union council adopted a resolution Thursday endorsing the Atlantic Security pact after a stormy debate. Some of the 1,200 delegates alternately booed and cheered during the hour-long argument. There were cries at some speakers of "he's a Communist, throw him out."

Littlestown 37 SENIORS ON TWO-DAY TRIP TO WASHINGTON

The 37 members of the senior class of the Littlestown high school left at 6 o'clock Thursday morning on Leister's bus for the annual class trip to the national capital. They were chaperoned by Miss LeOra Held of the faculty and Supervising Principal Paul E. King.

Their itinerary on Thursday included a tour of the Washington Cathedral and a view of the St. Alban's school for girls. They made a tour of the capitol, the Supreme Court building and the Botanical Gardens and saw the Senate office building, after which they visited the FBI building and took an elevator ride up the Washington monument.

A picnic lunch was enjoyed at Haines Point Basin where the famous cherry trees are located. The afternoon was spent visiting the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the National Art gallery, the Smithsonian Institute, the Department of Commerce building and the Lincoln and Jefferson memorials.

Visit White House
Dinner was enjoyed at the Plaza hotel which was the Washington headquarters for the class. On Thursday evening they spent an hour at the National Airport, followed by a visit to the Library of Congress. The day's activities were climaxed with a visit to a theatre.

This morning after breakfast at the Plaza hotel, they took a bus for the White House. The morning was spent visiting the Pan American building, the Folger Shakespeare library, where Miss Anna

Mary Riden, an alumna of Littlestown high school is employed; then to the National Red Cross, the DAR, and the Corcoran Art gallery.

After lunch this noon at the Plaza hotel, they crossed the George Washington Memorial bridge to Arlington where they saw the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the amphitheatre and the Lee mansion. They continued to Alexandria where they visited the Masonic temple and then to Mt. Vernon, where at 4 o'clock, the class picture was taken.

Returning to Washington by boat, their final place of interest will be the Pennsylvania railroad station. After supper they will return home by bus. They expect to arrive in Littlestown by 10:30 p. m.
